

NO BETTER HOME FOR THE JEWS... THAN CANADA?

Monday October 23, 2017
Kaneff Research Tower 519

Session 1:

Diner	9:15-9:30	But the Jews Chose the United States
Dubin	9:30-9:45	Confessions of a Canadian-American European Jewish Historian
Veidlinger	9:45-10	"Jewish Bolsheviks" meet "Ukrainian Cossacks" in Canada
Ravvin	10-10:15	What Sort of Home is the Past? A Polish Home and into the Unknown
Discussion	10:15-10:45
Break	10:45-11

Session 2:

Penslar	11-11:15	Canadian, British, and American Jews' Response to Balfour Declaration
Spiro	11:15-11:30	Canada: Point of Arrival for Holocaust Survivors
Troper	11:30-11:45	The 1954 Election of Nathan Phillips
Menkis	11:45-12	In From the Margins? Canadian Jews in Canadian Museums
Discussion	12-12:30
Lunch	12:30 – 1:30

Session 3:

Panofsky	1:30-1:45	Canadian Jewish Women Write of Home
Nadler	1:45-2	Classic Montreal Jewish writers' preoccupation with Spinoza, Exile
Baskin	2-2:15	My Canadian Jewish Childhood: Hamilton, Ontario, 1950-1967
Kugelmass	2:15-2:30	Nothing is Forever: Remembering the Centennial in Manitoba
Discussion	2:30-3
Break	3-3:15

Session 4:

Ancil	3:15-3:30	But Which Canada Are We Talking About?
Margolis	3:30-3:45	Canada as a Yiddish Paradise
Robinson	3:45-4	"By the Rivers of the St. Lawrence": Montreal Jews and Their Remembered Future
Discussion	4-4:30

Co-Sponsored by:

THE DEPARTMENTS OF:
HISTORY
HUMANITIES
POLITICS

ROBARTS
CENTRE FOR CANADIAN STUDIES

YORK
UNIVERSITÉ
UNIVERSITY